The goal of this race is not really to beat Hunter, but to follow him. The first one of you that goes through each ring will make the ring turn green and shrink, and if it's too far behind what it can't happen. Therefore, the easiest way to do this is to keep right behind Hunter and follow him through each ring. You have to pass a specific order, so you can't fly and do it as you want, unfortunately. You probably need to try this section ³ several times, but what do you want with it and complete it, which achieves another orb in the trilogÀa Spyro Reignèd. If you need a visual aid, YouTube user Kenny XD96 has a video showing how ³ get the ORB, which we put ³. That covers everything you need to know about how ³ get the Orbe at Ocean Speedway in Spyro 2 in the Spyro Reignèd trilog. For more tips, tricks, and guides, be sure to search for Twinfinite. Here are some other guinea you may need while playing the Spyro Reignèd trilog, and feel free to ask any other questions you may have in the comments ³ below. Spyro 2: Ripto's Rage! Spyro reaveded Trilogy Ocean Speedway is the first Speedway in Spyro 2: Ripto's Rage! and in the revived trilogÀa remaster of the second game. It can be accessed at Summer Forest Homeworld after the player has collected 3 orbs. Like other speeds, it starts with the timer counter. Completing tasks increases the amount of time Spyro has. ORB Once you have managed to manage an ³ score on 'All in One', play again. Spyro be timed this time, instead of counting down. This gives you the opportunity to discover where ³ go to get an orb. Wow, at Ocean Speedway, you're looking for Queen Finny. She is at the center of a group of viewers who cheer up the navigators. It is also the only spectator that you cannot kill. Act to her to speak.
